Mount Barker to host exclusive preview performance by the Tutti Choirs

The award-winning Tutti Choirs are renowned for their uplifting performances in which disabled and non-disabled artists sing side-by-side. Each winter, the choirs perform a concert which this year will be held at the beautiful Living Arts Centre at Mount Barker Waldorf School.

In addition to some original work and old favourites, the Poco (“little”) Tutti choir will provide an exclusive preview of their set as a headline act for the Desert Song Festival in Alice Springs in September.

The concert will also feature emerging local choir The Gathering Wave from Ink Pot Arts at Mount Barker.

Tutti Arts CEO, Pat Rix, says: “This will be our first time performing in the Adelaide Hills and we’d love local residents to treat themselves to a glorious afternoon of music with the Tutti choirs. This concert has something for everyone!”
