Tutti Arts supports the Yes vote in the Voice Referendum

At Tutti, we celebrate the history and contemporary creativity of the world's oldest living culture. We believe that recognising 65,000 years of Indigenous culture in Australia's constitution is an essential step forward.

When we listen to people about the decisions that affect them, we get better results. It's time to recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples in the Constitution through the Voice.

Tutti Arts supports the Yes vote in Australia's upcoming Voice Referendum.

We encourage everyone to read the Uluru Statement From The Heart before casting their vote in the referendum on 14 October. There is also an easy read document explaining the Voice Referendum.

This is our moment to make history in Australia. Together, we can all make a difference.
